This study shows how God can use teens—even today—as instruments of His miraculous works. First, using the stories of Samuel, Josiah and Daniel, students will learn how they can recognize God's voice, remove idols in their lives and take a stand for the Lord. Then they will discover how a teenage girl named Mary obeyed God in very difficult circumstances and became the mother of our Savior; how the young Jesus was a model student and how, through a young boy's willingness to share what little he had, Jesus fed thousands. The youth worker article by Duffy Robbins encourages leaders to use the stories about young lives in the Bible to give teens the opportunity to see real-life people facing real-life issues under the loving hands of a real-life God.
