Ladies, are you tired of trying to engage your man in something he is reluctant to do? Let's face it: husbands are not normally seen running to bookstores to buy a couple's devotional.

And guys, are you tired of feeling like the term "devotional" is code for "boring? You may be thinking, Please, not one more thing to check off my daily to-do list. Plus, you and your wife have different views on what intimacy is all about, right?

If either of you is wondering if you're living more with your "roommate" than your "soulmate," then this devotional can help you meet on common ground and discover each other in new ways. You won't even need an alarm clock to wake you when your "devotional time" is finished.

Filled with insights from a real couple on real issues, Songs in the Key of Solomon will get you and your spouse laughing, thinking, sharing, touching, and praying – possibly all during the same reading. Each offering in this devotional is designed to spark connections around issues that matter, so you'll deepen your emotional, spiritual, and physical unity and ignite new levels of intimacy. (One devotional involves a bathtub and some candles...try not to get stuck on that one page over and over again.)

Here is an invitation to hear the music in your marriage – maybe for the first time...or maybe once again.

Margaret Burton:

Playing with family within a park, coming to see the sea world or hanging out with good friends is thing that usually you may have done when you have spare time, in that case why you don't try matter that really opposite from that. One particular activity that make you not experience tired but still relaxing, trilling like on roller coaster you have been ride on and with addition of information. Even you love Songs in the Key of Solomon: In the Word and In the Mood, you may enjoy both. It is very good combination right, you still want to miss it? What kind of hangout type is it? Oh can happen its mind hangout fellas. What? Still don't obtain it, oh come on its known as reading friends.

Ralph Overman:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Songs in the Key of Solomon: In the Word and In the Mood can make you sense more interested to read.
