Le Christ de Calvin (Jésus et Jésus-Christ) (French Edition) Pierre GISEL

Ce titre tient une place marquante dans la collection « Jésus et Jésus-Christ » et méritait de ce fait cette nouvelle édition soigneusement revue. Articulant l'approche historique et systématique à la lumière des différences confessionnelles, entre catholiques Romains et la Réforme, mais aussi entre Calvin et Luther, ou entre la Réforme et l'anabaptisme, cette présentation de la christologie de Calvin met en évidence un sens accusé de la transcendance de Dieu, et aussi, du poids des réalités humaines, histoires, charnelles et séculières. Elle propose là une représentation stimulante du Christ médiateur éternel comme de son œuvre de salut.

Paru à l'occasion du cinq-centième anniversaire de la naissance de Calvin, cet ouvrage montre donc à quel point la christologie calvinienne aide à repenser le thème de la médiation: aussi bien la médiation entre Dieu et l'homme, manifestée par le Christ, que les médiations interhumaines, ecclésiales, culturelles ou sociales. Point central et toujours en débat au cœur de la foi chrétienne. Et point crucial au cœur des débats de la modernité avec elle-même.

Une collection de référence en christologie sous la direction de Monseigneur Doré.
