This incisive new biography, acclaimed by the New York Times, penetrates to the very heart of Gibran's brilliance. Going beyond the many myths that surround Gibran, Bushrui and Jenkins chart his colourful life, his dramatic love affairs, and his artistic achievements, to present a unique portrait of a remarkable man. Also featuring original full-colour illustrations by and of the artist, and a complete critical study of works by and about Gibran, this authoritative and readable book is an indispensable companion for all who admire the timeless message contained within Gibran's work.
