Tirrell Ellis has always felt like an outcast. His loving grandmother takes him in after the death of his parents and his very existence becomes the source of much conflict between him and his half-brother.

Feelings of being unwanted fester inside Tirrell and he eventually explodes in fits of anger. His unbridled temper gets him booted out of the military, and he violently unleashes his frustration on his girlfriend when he discovers a secret that she's been harboring.

Tirrell believes things are finally turning around in his favor when he meets Alexandra Solomon. Blinded by the trappings of the lifestyle she offers him, he ignores the warnings of his grandmother to stay away from her.

By the time Tirrell finds out that Alex Solomon is not who she appears to be, it's almost too late, as he puts his life and the lives of his family in danger.

With his world falling to ruin, will Tirrell be able to right the wrongs he's done and prove that he's not the pariah his family believes him to be?
