• Should New Testament disciples continue to keep Passover today? • What are today's benefits of keeping Messiah's New Covenant Passover? • Did Messiah's disciples and church keep Easter or Passover? • Why did the apostle Paul teach the Gentiles to keep Passover? In Passover: The Price, the Path, author Don Haney answers these and many other fascinating questions regarding this ancient but revealing celebration of God's love and faithfulness. For example, Haney writes, "Passover depicts Christ as the perfect, sinless, humble (unleavened), and atoning Passover sacrifice given for the sins of all humankind, while the Days of Unleavened Bread signify the beginning of a new journey out of this sin-laden world to the joyous Kingdom of God." Awaken and refresh your faith as you discover anew the joy of celebrating Passover as Jesus and the apostles did in centuries past. MESSIANIC HAGGADAH INCLUDED As a bonus, Passover: The Price, the Path includes a messianic Haggadah (instructions for a Passover service) suitable for use by small or large groups. Those who participate in this service will gain a deeper understanding of our loving Father God and a greater love for His Son Messiah Yeshua (My Salvation). DON E. HANEY has authored numerous articles and books on a variety of timely biblical subjects, including a companion to this book Pentecost: A Countdown to Freedom. Since 1995, he has taught congregations throughout the Pacific Northwest and has addressed audiences as a guest speaker across the U.S., Canada, and Europe. Don's focus is to help students of God's Word through useful and unbiased study tools that foster deeper personal understanding and growth. His studies on the New Testament application of God's statutes, prophecy, and plan of salvation as revealed through God's feasts can be viewed at www.godslawislove.org.
