One of our best-loved spiritual writers offers a fragment of the living Word for every day of the year. Daily Readings with Margaret Silf offers a fragment of the living Word for every day of the year, together with a short reflection that will help you to discover life with God in the midst of simple, everyday tasks and encounters. These fragments are small enough to carry us through a busy life. Yet because they are the Word of life they are big enough to nourish our hungry hearts and still leave us with an overflow of love and grace to share with others. Daily Readings with Margaret Silf includes material adapted from Daysprings (DLT 2001).
