At two o' clock, the driver edges up a grassy hill, crunches along the gravel road, and stops in front of a restaurant with pale blue walls and circled by a terrace with white tables. Beyond it unfolds the beaming blue sea, littered with white cruise ships. Sugar Free is a collection of non-fiction stories detailing the author's vacations aboard various cruise ships. From slot machine mishaps to fanatically religious taxi drivers, from Florida to Jamaica and back, Sugar Free takes you through the beauty on board and off and never forgets the magic of vacation.
