The Complete Mother of the Groom: How to be Graceful, Helpful and Happy During This Special Time Sydell Rabin

As the mother of the groom (MOG), it's easy to be pushed aside, overlooked, and underestimated when it comes to wedding planning. But MOGs everywhere know it's not just about the mother of the bride. So how do they get involved without being seen as pushy or unhelpful? Experienced mother of the groom Sydell Rabin guides you through every sticky situation, including how to help out with the rehearsal dinner, be a welcome and helpful shower guest, and give assistance to the bride without stepping on toes. This guide gives moms whose sons are soon to be walking down the aisle a chance to connect with other mothers who went through the same thing. It addresses your every question, concern, and "Why me?!" moment. Some mothers want to do more than just wear beige and keep their mouths shut. This book lets them.
