The second edition of the third volume is devoted to the use of the Rorschach Inkblot Test with children and adolescents. This new edition includes updated norms and scoring procedures based on changes that first appeared in the system in the revised volume 2. The third edition of volume 1 provides the authoritative introduction to the basic principles of the Test and explains how to administer, score and interpret the results. The second edition of volume 2 is devoted to advanced scoring and interpretation, including structural and content assessment, diagnosis and prediction and special issues concerning the interpretation of various pathological conditions. Volumes 1 and 2 have both been revised within the last two years and this revision of volume 3 brings the entire set up to date.
