Unmasking Race, Culture, and Attachment in the Psychoanalytic Space (The John Bowlby Memorial Conference Monograph Series)

Unmasking Race, Culture, and Attachment in the Psychoanalytic Space (The John Bowlby Memorial Conference Monograph Series)

Drawn from the John Bowlby Memorial Conference, the theme of this book addresses the often hidden and ignored subject of attachment, race and culture. Can our individual narratives in relation to race, culture and attachment be unmasked in the therapeutic dyad to reveal our human connectedness? The contributors explore how the conscious and unconscious meanings of therapists' and clients' racial and cultural identities shape the dialogue between them. How this emerges for both therapist and client in their work together is illustrated in clinical accounts. Contributors: Kimberlyn Leary; Farhad Dalal; Barbara Ashton; Cascia Davis; Zack Eleftheriadou; Irris Singer; and Kate White
